I cannot believe I just used my bad luck by hurting Applejack's ankle. Now Silver Spoon and Diamond Tiara are going to be upset with me when her ankle is healed. What What should I do?
Eureka! I know just what to do! I will visit Applejack at the hospital, and then I'll ask Trixie to heal her ankle. Hopefully, I can get my next wish!
But how do I get to the hospital? I know! It's like 5 min-nutes away from my home. So maybe I can take a bike!
HOSPITAL
YOU
Don't worry, Applejack, I'm coming for you!

Aw, Applejack, I just want to say that I'm sorry for hurting your ankle. I just wanted to make this family hand-shake fantastic. Can you please forgive me?
Of course, Sugarcube. Everybody makes mistakes.
If only, there is someone who can heal your ankle quickly, and fast.
Maybe a doctor? Or a fairy?
Applejack, you're a genius! Trixie is a fairy, and she can grant wishes for people if they need their wish!
I was?
Yes! Yoo-hoo, Trixie! Come in please!

The Great and Powerful Trixie accepts your wish, Micro Chips! Now it's time for Applejack's ankle to be better!
poof!
Bone to bone, and vein to vein, mend this ankle, end the pain!
Applejack, it worked, it worked!
It did? Yes! I did!
Applejack, I'm so glad you're okay.
All thanks to Micro Chips and Trixie, they're the ones who made me better.
It's such a pleasure to help!
Micro Chips, Trixie, for making Applejack's ankle feel better, you are going to Applejack's house to set up some crops, grow some apples, and help around Canterlot City!
Yes!

Trixie, I like the way you used that magic spell to rhyme vein and pain!
Thanks, Micro Chips. I mean, I've been practicing those magic words all day.

Alright, y'all! Less talking, more moving!!
We still need to grow some apples next!
We still need to grow some apples next!

The end!

Micro Chips needs to find better luck for Applejack, and to do that, he calls Trixie to heal her ankle.
